

Dr Carolyn Boulter
High Sheriff of the Royal County of Berkshire

As the High Sheriff of the Royal County of Berkshire I have taken as one theme for my year in office building good communities through interfaith collaboration. So it gives me much pleasure to invite you to the Festival of Dialogue Interfaith Conference organised by Art Beyond Belief at Saint Mary's Church, Slough on 21st February 2009.

The conference will bring together everything that has been learnt throughout the last few months during the Festival, including the results of round table discussions between members of different faiths on the topics of age, gender, responsibility, compassion, spirituality and religion in a secular world.

The Conference will be chaired by Zafar Ali, Director of Slough Equalities Commission. It will include discussion on ways to build further on this interfaith initiative in Slough, and a question and answer session with a panel of high profile people of faith. The event will finish with a shared meal and entertainment.

I do hope you will be able to come. To book your place, please fill in the enclosed form and return to Art Beyond Belief before 30th January.

Please feel free to invite others to come along, and to copy this information to anyone who may be interested in attending.
